A welcome to Fiera di Genova was given by Corrado Brigante: Corrado talked about the main events and activities which take place at Fiera, and why Fiera joined the SUBITO consortium.

Mark Daniell then gave a brief introduction to the SUBITO project. Topics covered included: Partners, their roles and responsibilities; budget awarded by the EC; major objectives of the project; system architecture and concepts.

Each partner from SUBITO then gave individual presentations about their work on the project, presenting their results to date. The speakers were:

- Dr. James Ferryman (University of Reading)
- M. Stéphane Herbin (Onera)
- Professor David Hogg (University of Leeds)
- Dott. Leonardo Roncarolo (Elsag Datamat)
- Dr. Patrik Sayd (CEA List)
- H. Stefan Schlenger (L-1 Identity Solutions)
- Dr. Jouko Viitanen (VTT)

The Workshop then broke for lunch.

The first session in the afternoon was dedicated other projects funded under framework 7. The speakers were:

- Dr. James Ferryman (EFFISEC)
- Dott. Giovanni Garibotto (SAMURAI)
- Mr. Ravi Tekchandani (IMSK)
- Dott. Alberto Forchino (VANAHEIM)
- Dr. Jan Derkacz (INDECT)
- Dott. Siciliano Vito (PROTECTRAIL)

After coffee, Dott. Giovanni Garibotto (Elsag Datamat) gave a presentation entitled 'FP7: An Industry Perspective' where he spoke about the positives and negatives for large industry in their involvement in FP7 projects.

The final presentation was given by Massimo Ciscato (Research Executive Agency) on Security Call 4.

Additional Information: During the day, a number of FP7 projects displayed posters, and there was plenty of opportunity for attendees to network during coffee and lunch.
